NOTE FROM THE PASTOR:

Dear Parishioners,

My prayers are with you, as always, that you may have a blessed Lent. Lent is a time of renewal and deepened love. It is a time in which we meditate upon our Savior's sufferings gladly undertaken for us, His beloved. I leave you with a reflection written by a great saint.
God bless you!

Father Eric

Lenten Meditation by St. Thomas Aquinas

The Apostle says: Think diligently upon Him that endured such opposition from sinners, that you be not wearied, fainting in your minds. (Hebrews 12:3). We are advised to think diligently, that is, to think upon Him over and over again. In all your ways, says Holy Scripture, think upon Him (Prov. 3:6). The reason for doing so is that no matter what anxiety may befall us, we have a remedy in the Cross. For there we find obedience to God. He humbled Himself by becoming obedient says St. Paul (Phil 2:8). Likewise, we find a loving forethought for those related to Him, Shown in the care He had on that very Cross for His Mother. We also find charity for His fellow man, for on the Cross He prayed for sinners: Father, forgive them for they know not what they do (Luke 23:34). He also showed patience in suffering: I was dumb and was humbled, and kept silence from good things and my sorrow was renewed. (Psalm 48:4). Finally, He showed in all things perseverance to the end: Father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit (Luke 23:46). So, on the Cross we find an example of all the virtues. As St. Augustine says, the Cross was not only the gallows where our Lord suffered in patience, it was a pulpit from which He taught mankind.

The Apostle says: Think diligently upon Him that endured such opposition from sinners, that you be not wearied, fainting in your minds. (Hebrews 12:3). But what is it that we are to think, over and over again? Three things: (1) The kind of Passion it was. He endured opposition, that is, suffering from words spoken by others. For instance, they said: Vah, you that destroy the temple of God... (Mt 27:40). It is said in the Psalms (18:44) You will deliver me from the contradictions of the people, and it was foretold that our Lord should be a sign which shall be contradicted. (Luke 2:34). St. Paul [in the text above from the Hebrews] says such opposition, meaning so grievous and humiliating opposition. O all you that pass by the way, attend, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow (Lamentations 1:12). (2) From whom He suffered the Passion. It was from sinners, from those for whom He was suffering. Christ died once for our sins, the just for the unjust (1 Peter 3:18). (3) Who it was that suffered. Before the Passion, from the beginning of the world He had suffered in His members, but in the Passion He suffered in His own person, who Himself, says St. Peter (1 Peter 2:24) bore our sins in His body upon the tree.

To think diligently upon our Lord's Passion is a very profitable employment, which is why St. Paul adds that you be not wearied, fainting in our minds. The Passion of the Christ keeps us from fainting. St. Gregory says, "If we recall the Passion of Christ, nothing seems so hard that it cannot be borne with equanimity."

The Rectory office will be closed Monday, February 15th in observance of President's Day.

Lenten Regulations

1 - Lent is to be observed as a special season of prayer, penance and Christian charity.

2 - Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of abstinence from meat. They are also days of fasting, allowing one full meal.

3 - The other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat. The obligation of fasting on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday obliges all Catholics 21 years of age until the completion of their 59th year. The obligation of abstinence obliges all Catholics from the age of 14. Those whose health or efficiency of work would be substantially impaired by fast and abstinence are excused from physical mortification. When there is doubt or question regarding an individual's obligation a priest should be consulted.

4 - The Fridays of the year outside of Lent remain days of abstinence from meat. Other practices of voluntary penance may be substituted for abstinence from meat. These practices may be acts of self-denial, temperance, daily Mass, personal prayer, charity or Christian witness.
