WE'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER GRADUATION DAY...

The above was a title of an old song that was sung by The Four Freshmen and by The Beach Boys. The song had lyrics that went something like this: "There's a time for joy, a time for tears, a time we'll treasure through the years - we'll remember graduation day..." I think that the sentiments of that old song are very true. Most of us do remember our graduation day, all the friends, the hopes and the dreams that lay before us. There is a bitter sweetness about graduation because we leave behind what is familiar to us, acquaintances that we made and experiences that we shared and venture onto something new.

This past Saturday, June 13th, we had our eighth grade graduation here at Sacred Heart. For me, it was as the song put it, a "time for joy, but also a time for tears" as we bid farewell to some wonderful boys and girls who I have known for a very long time. But, as I reminded our graduates, the word "commencement" really means "to begin." Our eighth graders will begin new and fresh endeavors in the high schools of their choice.

It is my firm belief that a Catholic education makes a big difference in life. Students at Sacred Heart do not only just learn about math, science, history, geography, computers and art. Above all, through their years, they have come to know Jesus Christ, the Divine Teacher, in whom is contained all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. What is the real purpose of a Catholic school if not to inculcate this ideal? Students at Sacred Heart School pray hard, study hard and play hard!

The late President John F. Kennedy was once asked for a definition of happiness. President Kennedy, citing the ancient Greeks, defined happiness as "the full use of one's powers along the lines of excellence." That is, I believe a very good definition. The "Sacred Heart spirit" is truly one of excellence. That excellence is exhibited in so many ways whether in the classroom, the basketball court, the church or in service to the community at large.

On Friday night, June 5th, I had a great example of the Sacred Heart spirit illustrated to me at the Saint Peter's Boys High School graduation. The salutatorian for the graduation was none other than Reilly Walsh, a wonderful young man who graduated Sacred Heart in 2011. I have to admit to you that I felt a twinge of pride as this talented young man and athlete went up to the podium to deliver a very stirring and moving speech. I don't think the pride was a serious sin!

But, it is true to say that in line with the Gospel parable, that the Lord has given each of us certain talents in this life and it is up to us to develop those talents with the help of God's grace and use them to better our world. During this month of June dedicated to the Sacred Heart, let us all pray the Lord might bless in very special way all our graduates of the class of 2015.

All our graduates of every year know always that they have a special "home" here at Sacred Heart Parish wherever they go or no matter how far they might roam! We congratulate our eighth graders who received their diplomas on Saturday:
