NOTE FROM THE PASTOR:

Dear Parishioners:

Saint Padre Pio had the ability to bi-locate—to be in two places at the same time. On January 18, 1905, while Pio, then a young monk, was praying at his monastery, he was miraculously transported to a mansion hundreds of miles away in Italy. Leonilde was about to give birth to Giovanna when she saw Pio at her bedside. Before returning to the monastery the Virgin Mary appeared to him and entrusted Giovanna to him as “a diamond in the rough”. Our queen instructed him “to polish her until she shone beautifully.” Mary said that Giovanna would eventually seek out the monk, but that first, he would meet her at St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome.

Seventeen years later, Giovanna, full of doubts about her faith, went to St. Peter’s Basilica looking for a priest who might help her. A sacristan told her that the basilica was about to close, and that no priests were available, but a Capuchin seemed to appear from nowhere. He welcomed her into his confessional and furnished good answers to the questions that bedeviled her. Afterward, Giovanna waited outside to greet the priest and express her appreciation. However, he never came out. He seemed to have disappeared.

One day the following summer, she learned about Padre Pio, and a few days later she found herself with an overwhelming desire to seek him out at San Giovanni Rotondo, where he spent the last fifty years of his life. At the monastery, she stood in a crowd hoping to see him. As he walked by, he stopped in front of her and shocked her by saying, “Giovanna, I know you. You were born the day your father died.” Then he walked away. The next morning, Giovanna went to Padre Pio for Confession. He said, “Daughter, finally you have come to me. I have been waiting for you for a long time.” She answered him, “Father, you must be mistaken. This is my first time here. I never knew you existed until a few days ago.” He responded, “No. Last summer at St. Peter’s you asked a Capuchin priest to help you with your doubts about your faith. I was that priest.”

Then Giovanna recognized him. Her heart beat with excitement as he continued. “When you were being born, the Virgin Mary took me to your home. I witnessed your birth. Mary entrusted you to my care and made me responsible to help you grow in holiness. She told me that someday I would meet you at St. Peter’s.” These revelations touched Giovanna dramatically, and she became one of Padre Pio’s spiritual daughters. A few years later he had her join the Franciscan Third Order. Customarily, new members of the order had to choose a new name, and Padre Pio gave her the unusual name

Jacoba. Giovanna said, “What an ugly name. I don’t like it.” He answered, “You will be called Sister Jacoba because like Jacoba, the noble Roman friend who was present at the death of St. Francis, you will be present at my death.”

On September 23, 1968, she had a vision in which she was mystically transported to Padre Pio’s cell, where she witnessed his death. Later when she told one of the monks about it, she accurately described his cell, which she had never visited, and named those who had attended him in his final hour.

Here are some memorable quotes from Saint Pio:

1. “Do not undertake any course of action, not even the most lowly and insignificant, without first offering it to God.”
2. “Every Christian must show forth most clearly in his life the entire image of Christ. Oh, if only all Christians were to live up to their vocation, this very land of exile would be changed into paradise.”
3. “Our body is like a jackass that must be beaten, but just a little, otherwise it will throw us to the ground, and refuse to carry us.”
4. “Prayer is the best weapon we have. It is the key that opens God’s heart. You must speak to Jesus, not only with your lips, but also with your heart. On certain occasions, you should speak with only your heart.”
5. “Do not ever lose heart when the tempest rages. Place all your trust in the Heart of the most gentle Jesus. Pray, and, I might add, devoutly pester the divine Heart.”
6. “In all that you do, always be humble, guarding jealously the purity of your heart and the purity of your body. These are the two wings that will raise us to God and make us almost divine.”
7. “Satan fears and trembles before humble souls.”
8. “It is difficult to become a saint—difficult, but not impossible. The road to perfection is long, as long as one’s lifetime. Along the way, consolation becomes rest. But as soon as your strength is restored, you must diligently get up and resume the trip.”
9. “As long as there remains a drop of blood in our body, there will be a struggle between right and wrong.”

God Bless You!

Father Eric
