NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

In Phoenix, Arizona, a 26-year-old mother gazed at her little boy who was dying. She took her son's hand and asked, "Bopsy (his nickname), did you ever think about what you wanted to be once you grew up? Did you ever dream and wish about what you would do with your life?" "Mommy," he answered, "I always wanted to be a fireman when I grew up." Mom smiled back and said, "Let's see if we can make your wish come true."

In 1981, Frank "Bopsy" Salazar, a 7-year-old dying of leukemia, became the first "wish child" helped by the Make-A-Wish Foundation. He had three wishes: to be a fireman, to ride in a hot air balloon, and to go to Disneyland. He managed to achieve all three.

His mom was put in touch with the local fire department in Phoenix. She explained her son's final wish and asked if it might be possible to give her son a ride around the block on a fire engine. The fireman said, "Look, we can do better than that." The Phoenix Fire Department made sure Frank had an unforgettable experience. They made the boy the first honorary fireman in Phoenix history. A full uniform, complete with a yellow coat and a helmet, was custom made just for him. Frank scrambled around the back of Engine 9's ladder truck and slammed on the horn. Following the ride, he blasted a few cars with water from a 75-pound hose. At the end of the day, they boy was pinned with an official firefighter's badge.

Frank went on to experience a hot-air balloon ride and a trip to Disneyland. While in Anaheim, he was treated with every token of respect a visiting fireman could expect from his California colleagues, including being chauffeured to and from the airport in a fire truck and escorted around the park by two of his comrades from the Anaheim Fire Department.

Frank's condition worsened not long after returning from California, and he had to return to the hospital. One night all of his vital signs began to drop dramatically and the head nurse began to call the family members to the hospital. Then she remembered the day Frank had spent as a fireman and decided to phone the fire chief and ask if it would be possible to send a fireman in uniform to the hospital to be with the boy as he made his transition to eternity. The chief replied, "We can do better than that. We'll be there in five minutes. When you hear the sirens screaming and see the lights flashing, will you announce over the PA system at the hospital that there is not a fire? It's the department coming to see one of its own. And will you open the window to his room?"

About five minutes later a hook and ladder truck arrived at the hospital and extended its ladder up to Frank's third floor unlocked window. Five fire-fighters climbed up the ladder into the boy's room on the third floor. He was awakened when someone suddenly knocked on his window and opened it. In came five of his fellow Phoenix firemen. They had parked their ladder truck directly below. As his colleagues continued to crawl through the window, Frank could not contain his laughter. The boy shared a few laughs and stories with his firefighter friends before going back to sleep, with a smile on his face. Later that evening, Bopsy passed away

It's a true story about transforming death into something beautiful. Jesus of Nazareth did that too. For us. Forever. Happy Easter!

God bless you!

Father Eric
