NOTE FROM THE PASTOR:

Dear Parishioners:

This week, the National Organization for Women (NOW) will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary. NOW has done a certain amount of good for our nation. For instance, this feminist organization has spearheaded efforts to achieve equal pay for equal work, so that there be less and less disparity of income between women and men who have the same employment. However, the group has also been a malevolent force in society by promoting abortion, contraception and sodomy. Hopefully, in time, with God's grace, the organization will accentuate their positives and minimize (and eliminate) their profound negatives.

There is another organization for women in our nation, in fact, in every nation. It's called the Catholic Church. The Church is the largest provider of social services in the world. Through God's grace, we do more to help the poor, to serve the sick and to educate children than any other organization on the face of the earth. Many, if not most, of the people we help are female.

The Catholic Church has done so much to enhance the dignity of women. Think about the Word of God as delivered by St. Paul the Apostle, who said: Brothers and sisters, through faith you are all children of God in Christ Jesus. For all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus. (Galatians 3). What a radical statement for his time! With this utterance, women were raised to equal dignity with men. Of course, they always had such dignity. But ancient pagan societies, infected by original sin, but without the light of Christ, obscured this fact.

Jesus, Himself, treated women with great respect. They were His disciples, and they followed Him around and carried out important tasks. This was unheard of at the time. Rabbis simply did not instruct women in the Torah. In fact, it was a woman, St. Mary Magdalene, who was the first person chosen to announce that Jesus was risen from the tomb, as recorded in the Gospels. In a sense, she is the first evangelist!

Dr. Thomas Woods offers a marvelous treatment of women in early Catholicism in his outstanding book: How the Catholic Church Built Western Civilization (2005). Woods explains that adultery, according to the Church, was not confined to a wife's infidelity to her husband, as the ancient world so often had it, but also extended to a husband's unfaithfulness to his wife. This was a watershed moment in the history of marriage and family. It also enhanced respect for women in the world. It is for this reason and others that women formed so much of the Catholic population of the early centuries of the Church. "So numerous were female Christians that the Romans used to dismiss Christianity as a religion for women. Part of the attraction that the faith held for women was that the Church sanctified marriage, elevating it to the level of a sacrament, and prohibited divorce (which really meant that men could not leave their wives with nothing to go marry another woman)." (p. 214).

Women also achieved substantially more autonomy thanks to Catholicism. Robert Phillips writes, "Women found protection in the teachings of the Church and were permitted to form communities of religious who would be self-governing—something unheard of in any culture of the ancient world. . . . Look at the catalogue of saints filled up with women. Where in the world were women able to run their own schools, convents, colleges, hospitals and orphanages, outside of Catholicism?" (Last Things First, 104 [2004]).

Lastly, there is the most venerated human person in the Church. That person is female. I am referring to the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of the Church. Of course, her Son is worshipped to a much greater extent than she, who is never worshipped by Catholics, is honored and loved. But He is divine, the second Person of the Blessed Trinity, with a human nature. It was to a woman, representing the entire human race, that God sent His ambassador, the archangel Gabriel, to ask for permission to begin the salvation of men. What if she said no? What if she declined the invitation to conceive the Son of God? Would God have then formulated a Plan B to save us? We will never know. What we do know is that we owe immense gratitude to our Lady, the New Eve, for giving God permission to fix our broken souls and twisted hearts. Be it done to me according to Your Word, she said. (Luke 1:38).

In conclusion, as many women this week will be toasting the National Organization for Women we thank God for Holy Mother Church!
God bless you!
Father Eric

A Million Thanks!

Words fail to express my deepest gratitude to all the singers, parents of singers, supporters, contributors and lovers of all things 'Choirloft' at Sacred Heart... it truly takes a village to create and sustain the amazing music liturgies our choirs share with us week after week over the course of the liturgical year. Thank you all so very much and I hope as you scatter here and yon over the summer, you'll enjoy, restore and renew for the upcoming season!

In the meantime Family Choir will hold down the fort— 1st Sundays of the month (July 3, August 7, Sept 4— 11 AM Mass). And Travelling Choir will begin anew—selecting the next destination and creating music liturgies all summer long! Hop on Board!! Come on Up!! Check us Out!! No obligations—give us a try!! Questions? Pamela (VM 24)

Mark your Calendars: June 26th Travelling Choir sings today, 11AM—13th Sunday in Ordinary Time! July 3—Family Choir/Travelling Choir sings 11AM Mass Don't Miss It! Grand Prize for guest from farthest away country!!

Kids Praise—bring your instruments-play a church song! Take a treat!!

Top 10 Seemingly Insurmountable Reasons For Not Joining The Travelling Choir (Real life responses to my requests for new choir members!)

3. "I would love to join the Travelling Choir but I am afraid I can't make it up and down that spiral staircase!" Oh, I know what you mean!! But honestly, if you go very slowly, they are really manageable! And the loft...when you finally arrive is a bit of heaven, truly! It's impossible to replicate the choral sounds emanating from the choirloft of an intimate natural acoustic (as we have at Sacred Heart!). So worth the trip up (and down!!) Wouldn't it be fabulous if someone donated the funds for an elevator or new broader staircase for the choirloft?? Please remember this need in your prayers...See you in the loft!! (carefully...carefully!!!)
