Memorial Day: On Monday, May 29th the Rectory Office will be closed and there is no 7 AM Mass that day. Normal business hours and the 7 AM Mass will resume the following day.

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR:

Dear Parishioners:

Happy Memorial Day Weekend! How blessed we are to have been served by so many brave soldiers, who gave so much for so many!

Legislation has been introduced in the New York State Legislature that would allow doctors to legally prescribe a lethal dose of chemicals at the request of a terminally ill patient. Proponents call these bills “death with dignity” and “patient self-determination”. Christians call it assisted suicide. By the way, ironically, more often than not, these same people who refer to assisted suicide in such euphemistic (and deceiving) terms also call the vicious murder of unborn children “women’s rights” and “reproductive freedom”.

Governments spend so much time and effort to prevent suicide from happening. Think of toll-free hotlines and anti-bullying campaigns, for instance. Is it coherent to promote suicide while fighting against suicide at the same time? Definitely not. As one commentator said, “It makes no sense to recognize suicide as a critical public health concern while simultaneously promoting it as ‘dignified and humane’ for certain populations.” Moreover, assisted suicide generates the message that suicide is acceptable. It is never acceptable. Thou shalt not kill. (Exodus 20:13).

A person would be eligible for assisted suicide if a doctor has diagnosed him or her with six months or less to live. Our parishioners who are in the medical field would remind us that a terminal prognosis is difficult to predict. Medical prognoses are based on statistical averages. Frequently, people outlive the odds.

Often the person who opts for assisted suicide is coerced by a family member who stands to gain financially from the demise of that person. Assisted suicide is far less expensive than palliative and supportive care at the end of life. Legalized assisted suicide allows others, such as family members, health care organizations, and insurance companies to put pressure on older, weaker, vulnerable people to encourage them to cut short their lives. It discriminates against people with disabilities. After all, patients with a terminal illness usually become disabled as their disease progresses. Others devalue their lives and speak of less “quality”.

Assisted suicide turns doctors into killers. This is radically at odds with the physician’s role as healer. It compromises and violates the bond of trust between doctors and their patients. As one commentator stated, “Patients deserve doctors who will support them through their illnesses, not offer them a quick exit.” Under the New York State legislation, doctors are specifically required to state untruthfully on the death certificate of someone who has committed assisted suicide that the cause of death is the underlying disease, and not the suicide. Therefore, assisted suicide turns doctors not only into murderers, but also into liars.

Some might argue, “But how lacking in compassion are you who oppose assisted suicide! Do you want these poor people to die a long and agonizing death?” We would answer that almost all the physical pain can be controlled through pain management and medications. Moreover, as Christians we trust in Jesus Christ the King. If He sends us suffering He may be helping us to atone for sin. It is much better to make reparation for sin in this world rather than the next. Moreover, He may be deepening our faith and trust as we surrender to His providence, however temporarily uncomfortable that may be. Furthermore, He may be purifying our soul so that it is prepared for Paradise.

God Bless You!

Father Eric
