OCTOBER 10, 2021

THE 28TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

OPENING HYMN: GLORY AND PRAISE

GLORY AND PRAISE TO OUR GOD,
WHO ALONE GIVES LIGHT TO OUR DAYS!
MANY ARE THE BLESSINGS HE BEARS
TO THOSE WHO TRUST IN HIS WAYS!

WE THE DAUGHTERS AND SONS OF HIM,
WHO BUILT THE VALLEYS AND PLAINS.
PRAISE THE WONDERS OUR GOD HAS DONE,
IN EVERY HEART THAT SINGS;
GLORY AND PRAISE TO OUR GOD,
WHO ALONE GIVES LIGHT TO OUR DAYS!
MANY ARE THE BLESSINGS HE BEARS
TO THOSE WHO TRUST IN HIS WAYS!

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1 WIS 7:7-11.

I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire. Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, and I chose to have her rather than the light, because the splendor of her never yields to sleep. Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PS 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17.

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart. Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Fill us at daybreak with your kindness, that we may shout for joy and gladness all our days. Make us glad, for the days when you afflicted us, for the years when we saw evil.

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Let your work be seen by your servants and your glory by their children; and may the gracious care of the LORD our God be ours; prosper the work of our hands for us! Prosper the work of our hands!

R. Fill us with your love, O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

READING 2 HEB 4: 12-13.

Brothers and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart. No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

ALLELUIA

MT 5:3.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

GOSPEL

MK 10:17-30.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." Peter began to say to him, "We have given up everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come."

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from Heaven (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN: SING OF MARY

SING OF MARY, PURE AND LOWLY,
VIRGIN MOTHER UNDEFILED,
SING OF GOD'S OWN SON MOST HOLY,
WHO BECAME HER LITTLE CHILD.
FAIREST CHILD OF FAIREST MOTHER,
GOD THE LORD WHO CAME TO EARTH,
WORD MADE FLESH, OUR VERY BROTHER,
TAKES OUR NATURE BY HIS BIRTH.

SING OF JESUS, SON OF MARY,
IN THE HOME AT NAZARETH.
TOIL AND LABOUR CANNOT WEARY
LOVE ENDURING UNTO DEATH.
CONSTANT WAS THE LOVE HE GAVE HER,
THROUGH HE WENT FORTH FROM HER SIDE,
FORTH TO PREACH, AND HEAL, AND SUFFER,
TILL ON CALVARY HE DIED.

A Note from The Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Clarence Thomas delivered a lecture at Notre Dame University last month. The African-American U. S. Supreme Court Justice said that a watershed moment in his life was when he went to live with his grandparents in 1955. His grandfather was a “very devout” Catholic convert. His grandmother was a Baptist. Thomas, then in the second grade, was sent with his brother to St. Benedict the Moor Grammar School in Savannah, Georgia. He was not Catholic at the time, but would convert a short time later.

Thomas began studies for the priesthood at Conception Abbey Seminary in Missouri, but decided to leave after the 1968 assassination of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. His faith entered a stage of grave decline. He would return to Catholicism only after becoming a Supreme Court Justice, and has been a daily Mass participant for quite some time.

After King’s assassination, he said, “I lost faith in the teachings of my childhood and succumbed to an array of angry ideologies.” He saw morality “as a sign of weakness or cowardice.” The Justice explains, “Indeed, that was why I left the seminary in May of 1968. I let others and my emotions persuade me that my country and my God had abandoned me. I became disoriented and disenchanted with my faith and my country and deeply embittered, and perhaps worst of all, I let my family down,” he said.

At the age of 19, due to this unfortunate change in his persona, his grandfather asked him to leave his house. He then became a student at Holy Cross College in Massachusetts, where, he said, “I fell in quickly with radical ideologies such as Black Power. It was an era of disenchantment and deconstruction. The beliefs of my youth were subjected to the jaundiced eye of critical theories or, perhaps more accurately, cynical theories.”

Eventually a fundamental inspiration reemerged in his consciousness. “I was faced with a simple fact that there was no greater truth than what my nuns and my grandparents had taught me: We are all children of God and rightful heirs to our nation’s legacy of civic equality. We were duty-bound to live up to obligations of the full and equal citizenship to which we were entitled by birth.”

In April, 1970 Thomas returned to his college campus after a riot early one morning. There, he said, “I stood outside the chapel at Holy Cross and asked God to take hate out of my heart.” The good Lord did just that (He does the same for us), and replaced the hate with a love for the noble ideals undergirding the founding of the United States of America.

“As I rediscovered the God-given principles of the Declaration (of Independence) and our Founding, I eventually returned to the Church which had been teaching the same truths for millennia. ... Ultimately, the Declaration endures because it articulates truth. ... As Lincoln taught us, the Declaration reflects the noble understanding of the justice of the Creator to His creatures, and the enlightened belief that ‘nothing stamped with the divine image and likeness was sent into the world to be trodden on and degraded and imbruted by its fellows.’”

Thomas questions what he sees as a “reduced” image of Blacks today: deemed inferior by bigots or “considered a victim by the most educated elites.” As he explains, “Being dismissed as anything other than inherently equal is still, at bottom, a reduction of our human worth.” As for this reductionism, he said, “My nuns at Saint Benedict’s taught me that that was a lie. In God’s eyes, we were inherently equal. ... There was no room to doubt this and even less for self-pity.”

On this weekend in which we celebrate the “discovery” of America by the devout Catholic, Cristoforo Colombo, we can appreciate Clarence Thomas, his achievements, and his rich insight: “While we have failed the Declaration time and again, and the ideals of the Declaration time and again, I know of no time when the ideals have failed us.” (For further reading, see Kevin J. Jones, “Justice Clarence Thomas Credits Catholic Nuns’ Anti-Racist Example.” National Catholic Register, 19 September 2021).

God bless you!

Father Eric
