The special collection this weekend is for Mission Sunday.

THINGS WORTH NOTING...

- A word of welcome to our new Parochial Vicar here at Sacred Heart Father Maurice Mamba. Father Maurice is from the Republic of the Congo and was ordained a priest in 1998. He is a student at Columbia University and is pursuing a Doctorate in Economics. We are very pleased to have Father Maurice join our staff here in the parish and he certainly will be a great asset to us at Sacred heart Church. Welcome Father Maurice!

- A really big “thank you” to Tim Donnelly and his committee for working so hard to make the Oktoberfest a real success last Sunday. The weather was great, the German food was absolutely delicious and the car show was tremendous! Tim managed to bring all the groups in Sacred Heart Parish together for this Oktoberfest. Thank you to the members of the Holy Name Society, the Youth Group, the Special Events Committee, the YAC and the Boy Scouts for all that they did to help on that day!

- This weekend marks the official start of the CYO Basketball season here at Sacred Heart. Our young athletes attend the 5 PM Saturday Mass decked out in their “Spartan” uniforms and then immediately after Mass, proceed over to the Gym for the Pep Rally. It is always nice to see our Spartans at Mass on this day and we always pray for a good and successful season. Not that we have to pray too hard, because all our teams do so very well each and every year. God bless our young people and GO SPARTANS!

- Next Saturday, the Sacred Heart YAC will be sponsoring its annual Halloween Party in the school. This is always a very fun night and everyone has a great time. Plan on wearing a costume, bring the kids and enjoy a wonderful evening!

- Recently, I put up a sign in the back of the church for the Year of Faith. Perhaps some of you have seen it. The Year of Faith proclaimed by Pope Benedict XVI runs from this October to November 24, 2013. One positive idea to enhance our faith during this special year would be to go to the Sacrament of Penance (confession) if it has been some time since we have done that. Confessions are scheduled here at Sacred Heart Parish from 4 to 4:45 on Saturday afternoons. Of course, if that is not convenient, just call the rectory and we will be glad to hear your confession at another time. If you are seeking inner peace and a closer relationship with the Lord Jesus, now is a good time to come back to Christ and His wonderful mercy in this sacrament of peace.

- Finally, if a family member is in the hospital or seriously ill at home, please do not hesitate to call one of the priests at the rectory to come and confer the anointing of the sick. Recall that this sacrament is not just given when a person is at the point of death. It is a healing sacrament and can be received more than once. In the words of Saint James, “Let them send for the priests of the Church and let the priest pray over them anointing them with oil in the Name of the Lord.”

During this beautiful month of October, try to say the Rosary for peace! God bless you and your families.

Sincerely in Christ, Father Jerome
