FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

OPENING HYMN: MORNING HAS BROKEN

MORNING HAS BROKEN LIKE THE FIRST MORNING, BLACKBIRD HAS SPOKEN LIKE THE FIRST BIRD. PRAISE FOR THE SINGING! PRAISE FOR THE MORNING! PRAISE FOR THEM, SPRINGING FRESH FROM THE WORD!

SWEET THE RAIN'S NEW FALL, SUNLIT FROM HEAVEN, LIKE THE FIRST DEWFALL ON THE FIRST GRASS. PRAISE FOR THE SWEETNESS OF THE WET GARDEN, SPRUNG IN COMPLETENESS WHERE HIS FEET PASS.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1 ACTS 13:14, 43-52.

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God.

On the following sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said. Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instru- ment of salvation to the ends of the earth." The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium. The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PS 100: 1-2, 3, 5.

R. We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands; serve the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful song.

R. We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

Know that the LORD is God; he made us, his we are; his people, the flock he tends.

R. We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

The LORD is good: his kindness endures forever, and his faithfulness, to all generations.

R. We are his people, the sheep of his flock.

READING 2 14B-17.

REV 7: 9,

I, John, had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. Then one of the elders said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. "For this reason they stand before God's throne and worship him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will shelter them. They will not hunger or thirst anymore, nor will the sun or any heat strike them. For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

ALLELUIA

JN 10:14.

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

GOSPEL

JN 10:27-30.

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one."

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from Heaven (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN: IMMACULATE MARY

IMMACULATE MARY, YOUR PRAISES WE SING. YOU REIGN NOW IN HEAVEN WITH JESUS OUR KING. AVE, AVE, AVE, MARIA! AVE, AVE, MARIA!

IN HEAVEN THE BLESSED YOUR GLORY PROCLAIM; ON EARTH WE YOUR CHILDREN INVOKE YOUR FAIR NAME. AVE, AVE, AVE, MARIA! AVE, AVE, MARIA!

WE PRAY FOR OUR MOTHER, THE CHURCH UP ON EARTH, AND BLESS HOLY MARY THE LAND OF OUR BIRTH, AVE, AVE, AVE, MARIA! AVE, AVE, MARIA!

A Note from The Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

The Mass readings during the Easter Season (Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday) feature the lives, thoughts and visions of the Apostles. The Apostles gave so much. They were convinced that the Catholic Faith is the truth, and so they chose their path accordingly. The Saints followed their lead.

Take, for instance, St. Philip Howard of England (1557–1595). As Maolsheachlann O Ceallaigh explains, “England at this time was a very dangerous place to be a Catholic, since the English Reformation had taken place and Catholicism was treated as treason. Although he was eventually to give his life for his faith—condemned to death, he was not actually executed, but died in prison—St. Philip had a far from holy life in his early days.”

“He was an ambitious courtier, at a time when success at court meant flattering and pleasing the immensely vain Queen Elizabeth. He spent enormous sums in order to live the expensive life of a courtier, putting on entertainments for the Queen, as well as giving her gifts which include (to quote contemporary reports): ‘a girdle of tawny velvet embroidered with seed pearls, the buckle and pendant [made] of gold; a pair of bracelets of gold containing eight pieces in every of them an amethyst, and eight other pieces, and in every of them a pearl; a carcanet (necklace) of gold containing seven pieces of gold, six true loves of small sparks of diamonds, and many pearls of sundry bigness and small sparks of rubies.’”

“In fact, he put himself into such debt, trying to gain the Queen’s favor, that he had to sell some of his land—and not only his own land, but that belonging to his wife. What makes this all the more remarkable is that his father had been executed by the same Queen for involvement in a plot against her. While Philip was living it up at court, he was also ignoring his wife, to whom he had been married since they were both fourteen. Eventually she went to live with his grandfather, the Earl of Arundel. Though he showed charity to the poor, his life was fundamentally one of self-seeking and frivolity. It was listening to a debate between a Catholic and two Protestants that changed St. Philip’s life.”

“The Catholic was another saint, St. Edmund Campion, who would eventually be martyred. He was a brilliant Jesuit who, at the time of the debates, was a prisoner and had already been tortured several times. Despite these conditions, he performed very well against his Protestant opponents. Philip Howard was in the audience for one of these debates, and was deeply impressed. Slowly, he began to be drawn to the Catholic faith, eventually being received into the Church. His sister and wife had already converted.”

“Catholicism was illegal in England at this time, and Philip—who had by this time inherited the title of Earl of Arundel (a title that had been thrown into question by his father’s execution)—was such a prominent person that he found it very difficult to hide his religious beliefs. His refusal to condemn his wife’s religion, and his reluctance to participate in non-Catholic religious services, threw suspicion on him.”

“He was just about to leave England, so that he could practice his religion abroad, when he was arrested and imprisoned in the infamous Tower of London. He would stay there for the remaining ten years of his life, though he was promised freedom if he renounced his faith. On the wall of his cell, he wrote a Latin inscription which translates: ‘The more afflictions we endure for Christ in this world, the more glory we shall obtain with Christ in the next.’”

“The story of St. Philip Howard is especially inspiring because his transformation is so unexpected. Before his conversion, he was simply another courtier hanging around the court of Queen Elizabeth I, hoping to win the all-important favor of the Queen. His neglect of his wife is especially mean-spirited and unattractive—not even the kind of hot-blooded sin which might hint at great energies and passions within, the sort of personality of which Saints are made.”

“Furthermore, St. Philip would have been well aware that converting to Catholicism might have very bad consequences for him, in the England of the time. Everything in his life seemed to make the step he took most unlikely. His story seems that of a man who has become intellectually convinced that the Catholic faith is the truth, and chosen his path accordingly.” (Maolsheachlann O Ceallaigh, Inspiration from the Saints: Stories from the Lives of Catholic Holy Men and Women, 2018, p. 29-31).

Happy Mother’s Day!

God bless you!

The Memorare

Remember O Most Gracious Virgin Mary that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help or sought your intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence I fly unto you, O Virgin of Virgins, my Mother; to you I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of The Word Incarnate despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Golden Jubilee Mass: On Sunday, June 5th, at 2:30 PM at St. Patrick's Cathedral, Cardinal Dolan will holding a Golden Jubilee Mass at Saint Patrick's Cathedral. If any of our parishioners are celebrating their 50th anniversary (married 1972) they can call the Rectory before Monday, May 16th. The couple will be seated with the other couples who are celebrating their anniversary and receive a special blessing from The Cardinal. In addition to themselves, the couple may bring four guests with them to the ceremony who will be seated in another section of the Cathedral.

Central & Eastern Europe: Next weekend, May 15th & 16th, the 2nd collection will be the annual archdiocese collection for the Church in Central & Eastern Europe. The emergency collection on Ash Wednesday for the aid of The Ukraine successfully raised over half a million dollars. The Cardinal himself, recently embarked on a trip to Slovenia & Poland to ensure the people there of our prayers, support and solidarity in this terrible time. Given the great upheaval, violence and disruption occurring in this region this year your donation means more than ever. Last year the diocese raised a total of $214,763 despite the pandemic. These people need our help because they are suffering and in a period of great uncertainty. Please be as generous as your means will allow.

Girls Basketball Clinic: Sacred Heart will be having an all girls basketball clinic on Tuesdays from May 10th to June 7th. The clinic is completely free and open to both Sacred Heart and non-CYO players at all levels. Girls entering 1st-5th grade practice from 6-7 PM and girls entering 6th-8th grade practice from 7-8 PM. For more details contact Tom Corson at (718) 909-7709 or Kaitlyn Murante at (718) 619-6284.
