November 11th is Veterans Day and we at Sacred Heart wish to express our heartfelt gratitude to all the men and women who serve or have served in the Armed Forces. We would especially like to thank our parishioners who are veterans. Thanks for your service and God Bless you. For those who gave the ultimate sacrifice may perpetual light shine on your souls.

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR:

Dear Parishioners:

Father Allan Dennis served our parish in the fifties and early sixties. Allan Dennis was born on November 12, 1904, in Stapleton, the only son of Charles and Inger Peterson Dennis. He graduated from our very own Sacred Heart School and then went to St. Peters High School nearby. Subsequently, he enrolled at St. Charles College, Cantonville, Maryland. At the end of his third year at that college seminary, after hearing a talk by Father James Anthony Walsh, the Superior General of Maryknoll, he applied for and was accepted at Maryknoll Seminary, Ossining, New York, on September 1, 1926. He was ordained a priest at Maryknoll, New York, on June 5, 1932.

After ordination, Father Dennis was sent to minister in South China. Following language study in Hong Kong, he was assigned to teach science, mathematics and Latin at St. Joseph's Minor Seminary in Kaying, where he served for nine years. He was then assigned as pastor of Neu Yao Hang mission, a very mountainous area in Kwangtung Province, with about 500 Catholics scattered throughout the hills. The invasion of China by the Japanese in World War II made it difficult to do mission work. In July of 1944, Father Dennis returned to the United States.

After a short time at home, Father Dennis was assigned to the faculty of Maryknoll Junior Seminary at Clarks Summit, Pennsylvania, where he taught physics and mathematics. At the end of World War II, Dennis returned to the Kaying mission. With the help of three Chinese Sisters, he was able to baptize about 30 new Christians each year. Everything continued peacefully there until the arrival of the Chinese Communists. Again his mission work was disrupted. Father Dennis was imprisoned in December, 1950, along with Father Joseph Van den Bogaard and two Maryknoll Sisters. In March 1951, they were released and deported to Hong Kong. He returned to the United States and was granted permission to serve his home parish of Sacred Heart near his elderly parents. He remained at our church for twelve years and was very popular with the parishioners.

In May of 1964, Father Dennis was assigned to serve as a chaplain at St. Gabriel's Junior College in Lakewood, New Jersey. He remained in that position until the College was closed in August of 1968. His next assignment was to St. Emeric's parish in Manhattan, where he served as an assistant pastor. He eventually retired to St. Teresa's Residence at Maryknoll, New York. The adventurous life of Father Dennis ended naturally on October 2, 1997.

This week is "National Vocation Awareness Week". Each of us should encourage the children in our lives to pray a simple prayer each day: "Lord Jesus, I pray for my vocation." It really works! It is a simple prayer in which the child trustfully asks Jesus to lead him or her to the right state of life in the future, whether marriage, religious life or priesthood. How often do adults ask children, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" A better question is, "What do you think the good Lord wants you to do with your life?"

God Bless You!

Father Eric
