THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

OPENING HYMN: WE THREE KINGS

WE THREE KINGS OF ORIENT ARE;
BEARING GIFTS WE TRAVERSE AFAR, FIELD AND FOUNTAIN, MOOR AND MOUNTAIN.

FOLLOWING YONDER STAR.
O STAR OF WONDER, STAR OF NIGHT!
STAR WITH ROYAL BEAUTY BRIGHT;
WESTWARD LEADING, STILL PROCEEDING, GUIDE US TO THY PERFECT LIGHT.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1 IS 60:1-6.

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you.

Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PS 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

O God, with your judgment endow the king, and with your justice, the king's son; He shall govern your people with justice and your afflicted ones with judgment.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

Justice shall flower in his days, and profound peace, till the moon be no more. May he rule from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

The kings of Tarshish and the Isles shall offer gifts; the kings of Arabia and Seba shall bring tribute. All kings shall pay him homage, all nations shall serve him.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

For he shall rescue the poor when he cries out, and the afflicted when he has no one to help him. He shall have pity for the lowly and the poor; the lives of the poor he shall save.

R. Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

READING 2 EPH3: 2-3A, 5-6.

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

ALLELUIA

MT 2:2.

We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.

GOSPEL

MT 2:1-12.

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel."

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from Heaven (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN: JOY TO THE WORLD

JOY TO THE WORLD! THE LORD IS COME; LET EARTH RECEIVE HER KING; LET EVERY HEART PREPARE HIM ROOM, AND HEAV'N
AND NATURE SING, AND HEAV'N AND NA-TURE SING AND HEAV'N, AND HEAV'N AND NATURE SING.

JOY TO THE WORLD! THE SAVIOR REIGNS;
LET US OUR SONGS EMPLOY; WHILE FIELDS
AND FLOODS, ROCKS, HILLS AND PLAINS
REPEAT THE SOUNDING JOY, REPEAT THE SOUNDING JOY, REPEAT, REPEAT THE SOUNDING JOY.

A Note from The Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Dr. Wanda Poltawska (née Wojtasik), famous pro-life physician, was a close friend of St. John Paul II since their days in Poland. In an interview that was published as part of a book (Włodzimierz Redziach, Stories about John Paul II: Told by His Close Friends and Co-Workers, 2014) she furnishes us with some moving anecdotes about this beloved pope. She said, “He loved people and never spoke ill of anyone. He admitted to me that as a youth he was terrified by the sentence: Do not judge and you will not be judged (Luke 6:37), which left a deep impression on him for the rest of his life.” He once told her of his confidence in prayer: “People do not realize what a powerful weapon prayer is.” He added: “Learn to pray.”

In 1978, she and her family were spending their vacation in the mountains together with Cardinal Wojtyła (the future Pope St. John Paul II). On August 6, during breakfast, he confided to them: “I never dream anything, but last night I dreamed that Paul VI was signaling to me.” Later that morning, John Paul and the Poltawska family learned from the radio about the death of Pope Paul VI. Wojtyła remained with them for two more days. Then he left for Rome to participate in the conclave that elected Pope John Paul I. But in September came the shocking news of the death of the new pope, also. When Wojtyła and Wanda and family met in late September, he told them: “I was hoping to have more time.” While saying goodbye, Wanda asked him: “What name will you choose as pope?” Her husband answered for him: “Obviously: John Paul II.” He, on the other hand did not say a word in answer to the Poltawska prophecy.

How did Dr. Wanda meet the future pope? At the age of seventeen she joined the Polish underground resistance against the Nazi occupiers of her homeland. In February 1941, she was arrested and sent to the terrible Lublin prison. Although mistreated, she named no names of her companions in the resistance. In September 1941, she was transported, together with other Polish women, to the concentration camp in Ravensbrück wherein she became a Kaninchen. This word in German means “rabbit”, but in Ravensbrück it meant a prisoner forced to undergo experimental operations.

Wanda was one of the seventy-four Polish women used as human guinea pigs. They operated on her legs, causing her intense pain. She was on the point of going insane and even considered throwing herself against the electrified barbed wire fence to put an end to her life. She managed to survive until the camp was liberated by Soviet soldiers on April 30, 1945. Wanda was able to return to her home town of Lublin, but the nightmares and the P.T.S.D. was enslaving her to such an extent that whenever someone asked who she was, she would answer almost mechanically: “Number 7709.” That was her prison number.

But then things changed drastically years later when she met a great priest. “One day I went to Saint Mary’s Basilica [in Kraków]. I started to pray, as usual, in front of the large crucifix, when Father Karol Wojtyła entered the church. I had already met him, because he was involved in pastoral assistance to physicians. I watched him kneel down and then go into the confessional. At that point I felt that I had to go to him, as though I were being driven by an interior force. I went to Confession. I still feel the sense of relief and peace that I experienced.” The future saint began to counsel her and pray for her. Genuine emotional and spiritual healing soon followed, and a friendship was born.

In 1962, she discovered that she had cancer. She began to feel ill when Bishop Wojtyła was in Rome for the Second Vatican Council. The bishop was informed of the cancer by means of a telegram sent from her husband, telling Wojtyła that Wanda had been admitted to the hospital. Wojtyła turned to Padre (St.) Pio of Pietrelcina. In a letter he asked the friar with the stigmata to pray for a sick woman, without mentioning her actual name. At that time, Wanda, like all others in Poland, knew nothing about the great mystic from southern Italy. The Communists kept the citizens thoroughly isolated from the West. Only after she was cured did she find out about that letter sent to St. Pio and his miraculous intercession. She said, “I shivered when I learned the contents of it. To tell the truth, my total and inexplicable cure, instead of making me kneel down to thank the Lord, provoked a sort of rebellion within me: I was frightened by God’s power and by the fact that we depend totally upon Him.”

These last words are quite striking, no? Do we ever feel a rebellion in us, and even a fear, because of God’s power? Do we ever feel frightened due to the fact that we depend totally upon Him? If the answer is yes, perhaps we should discuss it with Him? We learn much by praying.

Happy New Year!

God bless you!

SAINT JOHN NEUMANN

FEAST DAY: JANUARY 5TH

WE ASK FOR THE INTERCESSION OF SAINT JOHN NEUMANN ON BEHALF OF OUR SICK PARISHIONERS AND FRIENDS

Blessed be God. Blessed be His Holy Name. Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God, true man. Blessed be the name of Jesus. I believe O Jesus that You are the Christ the Son of the Living God. I proclaim my love for the vicar of Christ on Earth. I believe all the sacred truths that the holy Catholic Church believes and teaches. I promise to give good example by the regular practice of my faith in honor of His Divine Name. I pledge myself against perjury, blasphemy, profanity and obscene speech. I pledge my loyalty to the flag of my country, and to the God-given principles of freedom, justice and happiness for which it stands. I pledge my support to all lawful authority both civil and religious. I dedicate myself to the honor of the sacred name of Jesus Christ and beg that He will keep me faithful to these pledges until death. Amen.

Catholic University/Catholic Communications: The Annual collection for Catholic University of America & Catholic Communications Campaign will be taken up next weekend. Catholic University was founded in 1887 and has served as a unique institution of higher education. Your donations have made it possible for students, young and old, to have quality academic and spiritual programs. The Catholic Communications Campaign helps our clergy provide quality Catholic television and radio programs. Half of this collection remains here in our own archdiocese to fund Catholic New York and other local programs. Please be as generous as your means will allow and remember every donation matters.
