FOURTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

OPENING HYMN: HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY! LORD GOD ALMIGHTY!
EARLY IN THE MORNING OUR SONG SHALL RISE TO THEE:

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY! MERCIFUL AND
MIGHTY, GOD IN THREE PERSONS, BLESSED TRINITY.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

READING 1 JER 1:4-5,17-19.

The word of the LORD came to me, saying: Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. But do you gird your loins; stand up and tell them all that I command you. Be not crushed on their account, as though I would leave you crushed before them; for it is I this day who have made you a fortified city, a pillar of iron, a wall of brass, against the whole land: against Judah's kings and princes, against its priests and people. They will fight against you but not prevail over you, for I am with you to deliver you, says the LORD.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PS 71: 1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 15-17.

R. I will sing of your salvation.

In you, O LORD, I take refuge; let me never be put to shame. In your justice rescue me, and deliver me; incline your ear to me, and save me.

R. I will sing of your salvation.

Be my rock of refuge, a stronghold to give me safety, for you are my rock and my fortress. O my God, rescue me from the hand of the wicked.

R. I will sing of your salvation.

For you are my hope, O Lord; my trust, O God, from my youth. On you I depend from birth; from my mother's womb you are my strength.

R. I will sing of your salvation.

My mouth shall declare your justice, day by day your salvation. O God, you have taught me from my youth, and till the present I proclaim your wondrous deeds.

R. I will sing of your salvation.

READING 2 1 COR 13:4-13.

Brothers and sisters: Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be brought to nothing; if tongues, they will cease; if knowledge, it will be brought to nothing. For we know partially and we prophesy partially, but when the perfect comes, the partial will pass away. When I was a child, I used to talk as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I put aside childish things. At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known. So faith, hope, love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

ALLELUIA

LK 4:18.

The Lord sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives.

GOSPEL

LK 4: 21-30.

Jesus began speaking in the synagogue, saying: "Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth. They also asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb, 'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'" And he said, "Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place. Indeed, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah when the sky was closed for three and a half years and a severe famine spread over the entire land. It was to none of these that Elijah was sent, but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon. Again, there were many lepers in Israel during the time of Elisha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from Heaven (BOW) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN: SENT FORTH BY GOD'S BLESSING

SENT FORTH BY GOD'S BLESSING, OUR TRUE FAITH CONFESSING, THE PEOPLE OF GOD FROM HIS DWELLING TAKE LEAVE.

GOD'S SACRIFICE ENDED, O NOW BE EXTENDED THE FRUITS OF THIS MASS IN ALL HEARTS WHO BELIEVE.

THE SEED OF CHRIST'S TEACHING, OUR INNER SOULS REACHING, SHALL BLOSSOM IN ACTION FOR GOD AND FOR ALL. HIS GRACE SHALL INCITE US, HIS LOVE SHALL UNITE US TO FURTHER GOD'S KINGDOM AND ANSWER HIS CALL.

A Note from The Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This week is Catholic Schools Week. We are privileged to have a school at Sacred Heart that is in many ways a great blessing for our parish and for the community. Congratulations to Ms. Catalano, the faculty, staff, students and their families at Sacred Heart School for their immense love and dedication!

In the Catholic schools, the highest standards of discipline and academic excellence are encouraged. The results are readily apparent, as shown by, for instance, annual test scores. More importantly, by means of the atmosphere where central is the love of Jesus (blessed be His Name) and His truth, the student of a Catholic school has great potential to flourish, be happy, and do much good for his or her community. Jesus said: Apart from Me you can do nothing (John 15:5). Apart from Jesus there is no well-being whatsoever for the human person. Do we believe this?

But aren't public schools just as good (and cheaper!)? Pope Pius XI in his encyclical, Divini Illius Magistri (On the Christian Education of Youth) said no. "The so-called 'neutral' school from which religion is excluded, is contrary to the fundamental principles of education. Such a school moreover cannot exist in practice; it is bound to become irreligious."

Tragically, Jesus is excluded from the public school at the institutional level, although individually in such schools, there are many devout Christians. However, these good people are forbidden to share their faith by atheistic diktats of the leaders of public education. This is truly tragic because the just man will live by faith (Romans 1:17, Galatians 3:11, Hebrews 10:38). In the public schools the students are not trained in faith, and so their likelihood of becoming persons of justice is drastically diminished. In the Catholic school the student is trained to be not just a good citizen on earth, but to achieve the greatest of all privileges: citizenship in Heaven.

Early in our nation's history the importance of Catholic schools became obvious to the bishops of our Church. The First Provincial Council of Baltimore in 1829 stated: "We judge it absolutely necessary that schools be established in which the young may be taught the principles of faith and morality, while being instructed in letters." This sentiment was codified in law decades later in 1884 at the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore: "We decide and decree that near each church, where it does not exist, a parish school is to be erected within two years of the promulgation of this Council."

The Fathers of the Second Vatican Council in their Declaration on Christian Education stated: "The Church's involvement in the field of education is demonstrated especially by the Catholic school. . . Therefore, since it can contribute so substantially to fulfilling the mission of God's people, and can further the dialogue between the Church and the family of man, to their mutual benefit, the Catholic school retains its immense importance in the circumstances of our times too. . . As for Catholic parents, the Council calls to mind their duty to entrust their children to Catholic schools (# 8)."

Similarly, in 1979, Pope St. John Paul II told the annual convention of the National Catholic Educational Association: "Yes, the Catholic school must remain a privileged means of Catholic education in America. . . worthy of the greatest sacrifices."

The influential spiritual writer Thomas Merton reflected on his boyhood in France between the two world wars. He contrasted the public government-run school in his village with the Catholic one:

"When I think of the Catholic parents who sent their children to a [government] school like that, I begin to wonder what was wrong with their heads. Down by the river, in a big clean white building, was a college run by the Marist Fathers. I had never been inside it: indeed, it was so clean that it frightened me. But I knew a couple of boys who went to it. They were sons of the little lady who ran the pastry shop opposite the church at St. Antonin and I remember them as exceptionally nice fellows, very pleasant and good. It never occurred to anyone to despise them for being pious. And how unlike the products of the Lycée [public school] they were!"

"When I reflect on all this, I am overwhelmed at the thought of the tremendous weight of moral responsibility that Catholic parents accumulate upon their shoulders by not sending their children to Catholic schools. Those who are not of the Church have no understanding of this. They cannot be expected to. As far as they can see, all this insistence on Catholic schools is only a money-making device by which the Church is trying to increase its domination over the minds of men, and its own temporal prosperity. And, of course, most non-Catholics imagine that the Church is immensely rich, and that all Catholic institutions make money hand over fist, and that all that money is stored away somewhere to buy gold and silver dishes for the Pope and cigars for the College of Cardinals."

"Is it any wonder that there can be no peace in a world where everything possible is being done to guarantee that the youth of every nation will grow up absolutely without moral and religious discipline, and without the shadow of an interior life, or of that spirituality and charity and faith which alone can safeguard the treaties and agreements made by governments? And Catholics, thousands of Catholics everywhere, have the consummate audacity to weep and complain because God does not hear their prayers for peace, when they have neglected not only His will, but the ordinary dictates of natural reason and prudence, and let their children grow up according to the standards of a civilization of hyenas." (Thomas Merton, The Seven Storey Mountain. New York: Harcourt, Inc., 1998, 56). (For further reading see, Fr. Peter Stravinskis, "St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, St. John Neumann, and Catholic Schools Today." www.catholicworldreport.com, 3 January 2022.

God bless you!

God bless our Catholic Schools!

Social Justice Ministry: On Tuesday, February 15th, at 7 PM at Blessed Sacrament, Deacon Richard Espinal will be giving a talk titled “Social Justice– So what does that have to do with my being a Catholic.”

Catholic Schools Week: This coming week is Catholic Schools Week and we encourage parents to choose a Catholic school for their child’s education. By giving your child the gift of a Catholic school education you are ensuring that the Catholic faith and beliefs will be taught to them on a daily basis. Also, academically it has been proven that Catholic school students achieve at a higher level than public school students. Finally, many times the friendships that are made during this time are ones that last a lifetime.

Prayer for Priests

Heavenly Father, pour out Your grace on the priests You have made. Let them remember that in performing their tasks, they are never alone.

Relying on Your almighty power and believing in Christ who called them to share in his priesthood, may they devote themselves to their ministry with complete trust.

Strengthen them with the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and help them to serve their subjects. Through them, may Your Word be truly proclaimed, and may Your Sacraments, especially the Eucharist be faithfully administered and devoutly received.

Amen.
